

Avil Jackson

Avil has been a member of ATD for over 9 years and began her career as a talent development professional a few years prior. She is a 3rd generation educator fortunate to experienced many different industries. ATD has helped her combine all she has learned from experiences with her believe in helping others achieve their potential. She loves what she does; this is her third and last career.

Born and raised in Omaha, Nebraska, she has a bachelor's degree from Brandeis University and a degree in culinary arts from the Culinary Institute of America. In addition to helping others become better at what they do, she also has a continued commitment to her professional development.

Travelex Insurance Services has been her professional home since 2014. Her journey with Travelex has been filled with some of the most enriching experiences of her life and she currently serves as the Director of Learning and Development. Her team is charged with developing and implementing programs for both our internal team and external partners. They help both entities achieve their peak performance through a better understanding of travel protection and their business practices.