

Liz Brumels

Liz is a Talent Development Business Partner at Markel. In her role at Markel, she works with her division of 900+ associates to align development to meet business goals and objectives. Liz was instrumental in the global roll out of the company's Learning Management System and serves as a system administrator.

Her training and development experience started in the non-profit sector where she designed and delivered training for employees and volunteers. Liz brings a wealth of Insurance knowledge and experience to her training design and facilitation. She holds her AINS and Nebraska Property & Casualty license. She is a member of the Society of Insurance Trainers & Educators (SITE). Liz holds a master's degree in Human Capital Management and is a Certified Professional in Learning and Performance (CPLP).