

Tammy Olson

Tammy has over ten years of experience in instructional design and training and development. In her current role, Tammy is an Instructional Designer for Supportworks. Some of her previous positions include Instructional Designer at The Maids International franchise organization, Director of Training and Development at Behaven Kids Specialized Day Program and Counseling Center and several training and development positions at Father Flanagan's Boys' Home.

Tammy obtained her graduate certificate in Instructional Design from the University of Wisconsin – Stout and her Master's in Educational Psychology from the University of Nebraska – Lincoln.

Tammy also spent nine years doing pharmaceutical sales before returning to the field of learning and development.

Tammy has been a member of the eLearning Guild for the past 6 years and joined ATD Nebraska last year.