

Teresa Gan

Teresa has in depth knowledge and over 8 years HR experience in talent development, performance management and employee engagement with multinational companies. In her current role, Teresa is HR Business Partner with American Red Cross.

Teresa earned Master of Arts degree in Human Resources & Industrial Relations from University of Minnesota and Bachelor of Arts in English from Shanghai International Studies University. She was granted International Teaching & Training Certification from City & Guilds of London Institute in 2006.

Teresa joined ATD Nebraska in November 2014 and has been a board member since April 2015. She is excited to apply her experience and skills to market the ATD Nebraska activities, which would result in increased awareness of the chapter and increased membership as well as member involvement.