

Kaitlyn Niechwiadowicz

Kaitlyn Niechwiadowicz (knee-shadow-wits) is a Senior Learning and Development Specialist at C&A Industries. With 5 years in the staffing industry and almost 4 years in learning and development, Kaitlyn is an expert in training new recruiters and account managers as they join the organization. She has experience with instructional design, coaching, facilitating, and managing learning programs for new hires. Her mission is to serve with positivity and passionately develop others to reach their full potential by creating an environment for relationship building, continuous learning, and collaboration.

Kaitlyn holds a CSP (Certified Staffing Professional) certification through the American Staffing Association, and a B.S. in Communications from University of Nebraska-Omaha. She is currently working on her Master's degree in Industrial/Organizational Psychology at Bellevue University.