

Katie Kuhl

Katie is a learning and development professional with experience in classroom facilitation, content assessment and development, organizational development, leadership, and business process strategy. She earned her Bachelor's degree in Sociology, with a minor in Psychology, from the University of Omaha and is certified in Predictive Index assessments, Coaching, and Leadership Program Development.

Currently, she is in her 12th year at Medical Solutions – a national company focused on staffing quality healthcare in a travel capacity – and serves as the Director of Learning & Development. In her role she leads key initiatives at the organization to drive employee learning and development, as well as partners with HR and business leaders to ensure they have access to the best possible people, processes, training, metrics, tools and technology on a national scale. Her team supports new hire on-boarding, employee training programs, leadership development, succession planning, career-pathing, change management, and professional and career development.

Katie is an active member of ATD Nebraska and is currently serving in her 6th year on the Board of Directors as the Past President. She was recognized as the 2019 ATD Nebraska Learning Leadership award recipient and selected as a Midlands Business Journal 40 under 40 winner for 2020.
