

Pati Carr

Pati has over 15 years experience designing, developing, and facilitating learning as well as managing teams. Her current role with Carson Group is as a Learning Management System Administrator where she assists with leveraging the LMS and its capabilities with all company engagement and learning initiatives.

Pati holds a Master's degree in Communication, a Master's in Organizational Performance, and she is currently a PhD candidate working towards her doctorate in Human Capital Management.

Pati has served on the ATD Nebraska Board in various positions for several years and she is excited to continue to serve our wonderful community of professionals.