

Morgan Netz

Morgan just completed her Master's Degree in Organizational Leadership at Creighton University and is looking forward to implementing her knowledge in the Talent Development space. Morgan is passionate about developing others and making sure they are able to be successful in their positions. In her current role as a Client Service Consultant for the Holmes Murphy Fraternal Insurance Practice, she manages client relationships to promote risk management education and insurance services. Morgan works closely with team leads to assist in onboarding and training new employees. Active in the community, Morgan is a Board Member for Lincoln G.O.L.D. (Girls Organization for Leadership and Development), an advisor for the Kappa Chapter of Chi Omega, and a member of the Junior League of Omaha, having served on the Diversity and Inclusion and Membership Placement committees.
