

Laura Goding

Laura comes to the board with an enthusiasm for mentoring coworkers and helping them reach professional milestones. In Laura's current role as E-Learning Specialist at Project Harmony, she maintains the learning management system users and courses, designs asynchronous training, and helps refresh instructor led training that the organization offers for the early intervention of child abuse and neglect.

Laura is energized by the amazing work ATD accomplishes for the advancement of adult learning in all sorts of professions. She will put her aptitude for organization and problem-solving to work for ATD and the Programming team.
