

Kathy Headley

Kathy is Vice President, Director of Organizational Experience at ACCESSbank where she oversees the employee experience through learning, development, culture and engagement. She is passionate about creating memorable experiences that help professionals succeed in their career. With more than 20 years leadership experience, she enjoys developing leaders and young professionals in their career.

Kathy holds a B.S. in Business Administration from Nebraska Wesleyan University with concentrations in marketing, human resources and public relations. She is involved in ATD Nebraska, the Omaha Development Network and serves on the Program Committee for the Business Ethics Alliance. She is a proud advocate and supporter of Avenue Scholars, where she facilitates workshops and career awareness programs for young professionals interested in business and banking.

As a life-long learner, Kathy enjoys collaborating, strategic planning, implementing new programs, professional writing, cooking, and spending time with family.
