

Kristina Pohlmann

Kristina Pohlmann is a Learning and Development professional that has held various training roles over the last 14 years with the goal of creating and facilitating learning experiences that learners will enjoy. She recently joined ATD Nebraska and became a member of Omaha ODN group as well. She's passionate about helping people and looks for opportunities to continually improve her skills then share what she learned with others. She loves to get involved, give back to the community, and is a champion for DEIA (Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, Accessibility) and Wellness.
